CLUB NOTES

Unlucky last season, but every reason for continued optimism

As the football world sympathetically appreciated North End were gallant losers by 2-3 at Wembley in a Cup Final worthy of ranking with the few classic displays on this great occasion. The quality of their football in an ever-memorable display against skilful West Ham was an eye-opener to the millions who had written it off because two of the lesser lights were competing.

The great reception given the team on their return proved how proud all supporters were of them even in the disappointment of an undeserved defeat. Few who saw it will ever forget that wonderful first half which Preston dominated.

Considering that the promotion goal was also missed, despite four more points than put Chelsea up the previous season, and eight more than Charlton gained in finishing fourth, North End indeed were unlucky on the last lap after holding third place for months.

They gained much glory without the prizes and had the satisfaction of putting the old club back on the map in the football sense. There is every reason for believing that the revival will continue and, this time, be crowned with success.

Confidence that North End will again be pushing hard for promotion appears to be pretty general and, in our view, is justified, not least because of the happy, pull-together spirit prevailing from top to bottom in affairs at Deepdale.

POLICE NOTICE

The co-operation is sought of all motorists who attend Football Matches at Preston North End. It is particularly requested that full use should be made of the car parks which are provided.

Indiscriminate parking of motor vehicles in side streets and upon grass verges causes serious obstruction, annoyance to residents and pedestrians, and damage to grass verges. Where side streets are used for parking, this must be on one side only so as to facilitate the free flow of traffic. Cars must not be left in dangerous positions, obstructing road junctions or across garage entrances.

The Police hope that all motorists will comply with this notice. By so doing they will avoid being prosecuted for inconsiderate use of the highway.

Further cause for optimism is that the players are determined to compensate themselves for their near-miss last season when the double strain of fighting for promotion and Cup honours undoubtedly affected the outcome of a heavy task. They are all eager to profit from what they have learned.

It is to their advantage that they are one year older in experience, for that can mean a great deal where a comparatively young side is concerned. Several are not yet at their peak.

Immaturity inevitably was in evidence to some extent last season, as was the need for stronger reserves. It is far from easy these days to recruit any experienced players willing to play second fiddle, but the manager has done his best.

He will be on the look out for likely prospects at match after match in the next few weeks, as will our scouts. Meanwhile our progressive policy has resulted in the acquisition of reinforcements for the attack, a substantial sum having been laid out on T. Coleman, Tranmere Rovers outside left, and Ernie Hannigan, Queen of the South forward.

KNOW YOUR TEAM 1.—'Nobby' Lawton

It is the popular view, and, therefore, not much wide of the mark, that no single individual among the players has done more than our enthusiastic 24-year-old captain, if as much, to bring the best out of his team and rally them in anxious moments.

'Nobby', being a modest chap and a great believer in team spirit, probably would discount this, but who can deny that he has been a consistently strong driving force, setting the best possible example of personal effort, since his arrival from Manchester United. His inspiring leadership has been on a par with that of our great captains of the past.

A product of Matt Busby's 'football academy', and former colleague at Old Trafford of his friend and clubmate 'Big Alex', he has become a more polished and much improved player in a very short time, thereby proving himself one of North End's best bargains in recent years.

OUR VISITORS—Rotherham United

Today we heartily welcome the Merry Millers of Millmoor, whose lively team spirit and obvious willingness to give of their best have earned admiration and respect over the years. The club see football as a team game, and everything is geared accordingly.

Rotherham's League performances last season earned healthy respect. Formidable at home, they averaged two goals to one in earning 31 points from 21 games.

On their travels they won five and drew four, including a well-deserved 2-2 effort at Deepdale, where they have been hard to beat on their few visits. At Millmoor, North End lost 2-4.

Rotherham offers the essence of a sincere Yorkshire welcome, with a non-stop tussle to follow when the teams get to grips, and no moaning if they lose. They are good sports who like to win while recognising the qualities of the opposition.

That is as it should be if the game is to come before the result. Probably the club's finest performance was knocking out the then Cup-holders, Newcastle United, in the fifth round of 1953 by 3-1 at St. James Park.

Many ups and downs and changes of name are associated with the sporty Millmoor diehards. The club was founded in 1884, elected to the League Division II as Rotherham Town in 1893, called Rotherham County 1919-25 when in Third Division (North), and then designated Rotherham United.

It was a happy choice of name: United they are in every sense from the chairman to the youngest professional, and blessed with a loyal legion of supporters, whose efforts to keep Rotherham's flag flying in League football merit the highest admiration and are a model of true sportsmanship. From small beginnings they have worked wonders in times of great need.

ROTHERHAM UNITED PLAYERS

There was some doubt beforehand over whether doughty PETER MADDEN, 6ft. 2in. captain and centre half, who joined Rotherham as a part-timer in October 1955, and that dangerous, artful inside forward KEN HOUGHTON, would be fit. Well-built ex-coalminer Houghton is a punchy marksman seldom off the target, and a better than average schemer.

Madden, who cost only a £10 signing fee from Bradford, has been plagued recently with migraine, and Houghton has been nursing a pre-season practice match ankle injury.

Ready to deputise were JOHN HASELDEN, a big fellow recruited from Doncaster junior football, and snappy-moving FRANK CASPER, a tall 19-year-old Yorkshire lad who has shaped well in previous first team outings.

Most of the Rotherham players are big chaps. Long-established goalkeeper RON IRONSIDE is a Sheffielder with 14½ stone to match his 6ft. 1in.; hard to bustle, harder to beat.

The backs are strong-tackling local boy DAVID CARVER (19, 5ft. 11in., 12st. 5lb.) and COLIN CLISH, a £5,000 capture from Newcastle in December. He has overcome the handicap of a broken leg.

The normal half back trio of long-serving ROY LAMBERT, another Sheffielder, PETER MADDEN and junior product BRIAN JACKSON are mettlesome opponents possessing terrier-like tenacity.

In attack, Rotherham hoped to field BARRY LYONS (17), a much-fancied junior graduate from Shirebrook; 6ft., 12st. ALBERT BENNETT (20), another Newcastle discard who has matured rapidly; BRIAN TYLER, converted from wing half to centre forward and jointly last season's top scorer with Houghton—18 goals each; KEN HOUGHTON or FRANK CASPER for inside left; and IAN BUTLER, a highly promising, slick, ball-playing outside left from Barnsley, who has attracted clubs not obliged, as Rotherham are, to dig and delve for their talent.

It may be significant that Rotherham's leading scorers last season were Houghton 18, Tiler 18, Bennett 16 and Butler 15—the power was evenly spread and there was plenty of it.

North End's encounters with Rotherham have been few and recent, the first clash being after our relegation three seasons ago. League games resulted:—

1961-62 ..... home 2-0, away 2-2
1962-63 ..... home 2-2, away 1-3
1963-64 ..... home 2-2, away 2-4

P. 6, W. 1, D. 3, L. 2; goals 11-13, Pts. 5

OLD FAVOURITES 1.—Joe McCall

Be sure that whenever old-timers are discussed by North End fans three names fondly mentioned will be those of Tom Finney, Alex James and Joe McCall. They are outstanding 'greats' in Preston football history.

Joe, born at Kirkham 78 years ago and long resident at Wrea Green, flourished before and after the first World War, played for only one club, and, during his 19 seasons' service at Deepdale earned wide recognition as England's finest centre half.

No more commanding display has ever been given for England than when he rallied his side by supreme generalship and example to a 5-4 win at Hillsborough in April 1920, even though he was not the captain.

Superb in breaking down pressure and at turning defence into attack, Joe was polished in everything he did, and excelled in the great majority of his 445 first team appearances for North End, including 75 war-time games. His debut was on September 15th 1906, his finale on January 17th 1925.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

The Supporters' Club welcome all of you back to Deepdale for another football season. We sincerely hope that you will give your utmost backing and support to the lads on the field to spur them on to achieve their eventual aim of promotion to Division One.

By now you will all know that the Supporters' Club is now open regularly to all members. The hours of opening are 11.30 a.m. to 2.45 p.m. and from 4.45 p.m. to 10.30 p.m. on weekdays; and on Sundays from 12.0 noon to 2.0 p.m. and from 7.0 p.m. to 10.30 p.m. It is also stressed that the club is open to members only and no non-members can be admitted.

A professional organist has been engaged for the members' entertainment and special nights for bingo, dancing and other such events will be announced later. There will also be a special evening for members of the Junior Supporters' Club in the very near future.

It is also proposed to show a film of the 1964 F.A. Cup Final which is to include the events leading up to the match.

The Club were to have run a trip to the match at Cardiff on Wednesday evening but as very few members were free to travel it has been cancelled. Coaches will be leaving the Supporters' Club at 12.30 next Friday night for the match against

GROUND SEASON TICKET HOLDERS

Would Ticket holders please note that there are now four stiles for Ground Season Ticket Holders, three on Spion Kop and one at the Town End. There has however been a large increase in the number of Tickets issued and Ground Season Ticket Holders are requested to come in good time, otherwise there is likely to be considerable congestion at kick-off time. Your co-operation in this would be of great help to everybody.
